We firmly believe that wel[illegible] [illegible] him will be amply [illegible] [illegible] that a large majority of them will [illegible] Democrats. They have been [illegible] by carpet baggers and [illegible] seekers. They have been taught by United States officials and others to believe that when they registered they swore to vote the Radical ticket for all time. We must undeceive them. Some of them already have their eyes opened, and to open those of others will be less difficult. Every Southern man should exert himself to make the ballot in black hands (since there Radicals will have it) an instrument to protect Southern interests and aid in crushing the monster Radicalism.

We are no prophet, yet we venture to predict that if universal suffrage shall become the settled policy of the Government the North will rue the day such a policy was inaugurated. It will not require much persuasion to induce the Southern negro to vote against northern tariffs, internal revenue bills, or any other measure which increases the burden of taxation. Perhaps they may vote to repudiate the national debt! We would not be surprised if they did. But this is for the future; we must deal with the present. We must begin to prepare for the Presidential campaign. Louisiana may have a voice and a vote in the electoral college. That voice and that vote can be for the Democratic nominee, if we so will it, have faith in our cause and put forth the proper exertions.

One word more. Don't forget the colored Democrat! Give him the preference over a Radical of whatever color and he will continue to be as happy as he was on the day of election after he had voted with his friends and came into the family.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE ON THE SITUATION.—The following confidential letter from Chief Justice Chase to a personal friend was published in New York, June 9th. It distinctly marks the present position and sentiments of Chase on important political questions:

WASHINGTON, May 25, 1868.

My Dear Sir: You are right in believing that I shall never abandon the great principles, for the success of which I have given my entire life. I adhere to my old creed of equal rights, with out one jot or tittle of abatement. I shall be glad if the new professors of that creed adhere to it as faithfully.

I am amazed at the torrent of invectives by which I am drenched. Almost everything alleged as fact is falsehood out of the whole cloth. Where an allegation has a little fact in it the fact is so perverted and travestied that it becomes falsehood. I know no motive for this except disappointment that impeachment has not thus far proved a success, coupled with a belief that I have done something to prevent its being a success. I have not been a partisan of impeachment certainly, but I have not been a partisan on the other side. As presiding officer over the trial my conscience testifies that I have been strictly impartial, and I am sure any one who reads the report will say so.

Individually I have my convictions and opinions, but I have very seldom given utterance to them. Indeed I do not think that the case in any of its aspects, has been the subject of conversation between myself and more than four or five Senators and then only casually and briefly. No Senator will say that I have sought to influence him.

The real ground of denunciation is that I have not been a partisan of conviction, and this denunciation I am willing to bear. They may denounce and abuse me and read me out of the party if they choose. I follow my old lights not the new.

What the developments of the future may be I know not. I neither expect nor desire to be a candidate for office again. It would however gratify me exceedingly if the Democratic party would take ground which would assure the party against all attempts to subvert the principle of universal suffrage established in eight, and to be established in all of the Southern Constitutions. Then I think, the future of the great cause—for which I have labored so long—would be secure and I should not regret my absence from political labors.

SALMON P. CHASE.

MR. CHASE.—Whatever may be the verdict of the country or of posterity upon the impeachment trial, Mr. Chase's conduct [illegible] in approved except in the spirit of bitter partisanship. He has done all that was left [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] for the bench and to lower his own character. We have [illegible] [illegible] make a single [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] care a [illegible] what were his sympathies with the great criminal. [illegible] [illegible] of that kind that Mr. Chase [illegible] [illegible] But it is that he has presidential [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the interests of his own nomination for the Presidency. As the Washington correspondent of the New York Times expresses it, the man who believes that the Chief Justice is not a candidate, as far as he can render himself such, deserves a straight jacket. It is not at all because it is a Democratic or Conservative nomination which he, Salmon P. Chase, is seeking! That would be only a political offense, at the most. The real crime committed as against the dignity and authority of the Supreme Court of the Nation, and it was just as bad when Mr. Chase was seeking radical favor by bidding for negro suffrage.

A chief Justice of the United States has no right to [illegible] interest [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] government. If the bench is [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] party purposes [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] it had better be abolished at once. If our judges are not to be above this sort of thing, the judiciary is a cumbersome, meddlesome and expensive humbug. This is a pretty successor of John Marshall, or even of Roger B. Taney, who would have been ashamed to [illegible] a tithe of what Mr. Chase has done. From the first moment of his elevation to his post means that the Chief Justice [illegible] [illegible] by every means and will less than the ordinary [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to compass this [illegible] [illegible] It cannot be too much insisted on that this is not a party offense, but a crime against the [illegible]. Mr. Chase, as a Senator, might be forty Democrats if he liked [illegible] so to employ his precept to the [illegible] [illegible] in any direction whatever is a flagrant perversion of the highest and most sacred trust of the Nation.—Springfield Republican.

An Italian innkeeper confessed to a priest who asked him if he never greased the teeth of his guests' horses to prevent their eating. He replied that he had never [illegible]. The next time he confessed that he had [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] times.

"Why," said the priest, "you told me the last time that you never had done it."

"Holy father," replied the innkeeper, "I did not know the trick then."

A Prominent Illinois Democrat for Grant.

The Springfield (Ill.) Journal says that Col. I. N. Morris, of Quincy, well known in former years as a prominent member of the Democratic party, made a political speech in that city on the 30th May, in which he came out boldly and unequivocally in favor of the election of General Grant to the Presidency. The Quincy Whig publishes a full report of his speech. In the course of it Col. Morris read the following letter from General Grant, written in 1864, when the people were already looking to him in connection with the high[illegible] offices in their gift. Col. Morris had written to him to know if, under any circumstances, he would allow the use of his name as a candidate. In this communication General Grant replied as follows:

NASHVILLE, (Tenn.) January 20, 1864.

Dear Sir: Your letter of the 29th of December I did not receive until two days ago. I receive many such, but do not answer. Yours, however, is written in such a kindly spirit, and as you ask for an answer, confidentially, I will not withhold it. Allow me to say, however, that I am not a politician, never was and hope never to be and could not write a political letter. My only desire is to serve the country in her present trials. To do this efficiently it is necessary to have the confidence of the army and the people. I know no way to better secure this end than by a faithful performance of my duties. So long as I hold my present position I do not believe that I have a right to criticise the policy or orders of those above me, or to give utterance to views of my own, except to the authorities at Washington, through the General in Chief of the army. In this respect I know I have proven myself a "good soldier."

In your letter you say that I have it in my power to be next President. This is the last thing in the world that I desire. I would regard such a consummation as being highly unfortunate for myself if not for the country. Through Providence I have attained to more than I ever hoped, and with the position I now hold in the regular army, if allowed to retain it, will be more than satisfied. I certainly shall never shape a sentiment or the expression of a thought with a view of being a candidate for office. I scarcely know the inducement that could be held out to me to accept office, and unhesitatingly say that I infinitely prefer my present position to that of any office within the gift of the people.

This is a private letter to you, not [illegible] [illegible] for others to see or read, because I want to avoid being heard from by the public except through acts in the performance of my legitimate duties. I have the honor to be, very [illegible] fully, your obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT.

The Navy of the United States.

The Secretary of the Navy has made a report to Congress giving the strength of the navy of the United States on the 1st of April, 1861, the number of vessels built or bought for the navy since that time, and the disposal made of [illegible].

On the 1st day of April, 1861, the Government owned the following:

Ships of the line	10
Frigates	10
Sloops-of-war	20
Brigs	3
Store vessels	3
Permanent store and receiving ships	4
Screw frigates	7
First class steam sloops	6
Second do	8
Third do	5
Steam tenders	3
Total	90

The following is a list of vessels built for the Navy Department since April 1st, 1861:

Screw sloops	31
Gunboats	26
Paddle wheel steamers, double-enders	27
Paddle-wheel steamers, of iron; double [illegible]	[illegible]
Paddle-wheel steamers, double [illegible]	[illegible]

Iron-clad vessels, [illegible] going, one [illegible]	11
Iron clad vessels, sea-going single turret	[illegible]
Iron clad [illegible], double turret	3
Iron clad vessels, single turret	44
Iron clad vessels, casemated	8
Torpedo vessel	1
Screw sloop	1
Powder tugs	2
Iron-clad vessels (first [illegible])	3
Total	179

Ten of the above [illegible] cost over one [illegible] dollars each, as follows:

Madawaska, screw sloop	$1,[illegible]
Wampanoag, screw sloop	1,[illegible]
Piscataqua, screw sloop	1,177,[illegible]
Guerriere, screw sloop	1,16[illegible]
Dunderberg, iron-clad	1,041,[illegible]
Puritan, iron clad	1,[illegible]
Dictator, iron clad	1,[illegible]
Vanderbilt [illegible], iron-clad	1,310,773 [illegible]
Agamenticus, iron-clad	1,016,071 13
Tonawanda, iron clad	1,[illegible]

The Government also bought four hundred and ninety seven vessels for the Navy Department, of which three hundred and sixty-three have since been sold, and ninety seven lost, sunk or [illegible] transferred to army, &c., thirty[illegible] are still in service.

SEIZURE OF A TOBACCO FACTORY—HOW THE GOVERNMENT IS DEFRAUDED.—On the 22d of April Inspector Harvey, of the Thirty[illegible] District, seized six barrels and eleven half barrels of illicit tobacco at a store in Water street, and on the 28th of April the same officer seized eleven barrels of similar tobacco at a store on Vesey street. Upon investigation Mr. Harvey found that the tobacco was manufactured at Northampton, Mass., and sent to this city.

While the officer was making arrangements to seize the factory information of the intended seizure was carried to Northampton, and the owners removed their stock and machinery. No trace of the men or property could be found until Saturday last, when the Inspector learned that the machinery had been taken to Newark, N. J., where the owners were engaged in the illicit manufacture of tobacco.

Yesterday Mr. Harvey and his assistant, Mr. [illegible], visited Newark and found upon an examination of the books that the owners had entered the purchase of four hogsheads of leaf tobacco, weighing 4,170 pounds, and also had entered the sale of eleven barrels of tobacco, while twelve barrels had actually been sold to one firm in Vesey street in this city.

The evidences of fraud were so palpable that the Inspector immediately seized the factory and turned it over for forfeiture. The bonds under which that establishment was operated are also believed to be valueless. The machinery and stock are valued at several thousand dollars. Inspector Harvey is entitled to credit for the manner in which he is following up the frauds in tobacco in this city and neighborhood.—N. Y. Post.

STAGE ROBBERY.—The overland stage was robbed on June 10th about six miles from Virginia City, Nevada. Treasure box and passengers suffered to the extent of five thousand dollars. The road agents were three in number and masked. Two brought their shot guns to bear on the crowd while the third did the [illegible]. The ladies present were very [illegible]. Mr. D. B. McGee was evaporated of $800. His wife had $900 in her bosom. She was not [illegible] [illegible], such a wife is worth keeping for a traveling banker. Miss Susan E[illegible] saved some money and a gold watch in a similar manner. She is worth securing as a banker[illegible]. Barney Dougherty slipped $20 [illegible] the back of his neck and got off with the trifling loss of some silver. Dr. Heath tried to slip his watch into one of his boots, but was detected and sternly ordered to hand over his foolishness. The whole party were then marched under guard up a ravine while the treasure box was cracked. These are the palmy days of highwaying come again.

The Pope having sent an agent to the United States to enlist troops for his army, [illegible] [illegible] has written several very earnest letters to his friends and to the antipapal [illegible] in America, entreating them on behalf of the Liberal party in Italy to discourage [illegible]

Accepting Negro Suffrage

The fact that reconstruction now nearly completed must stand is gradually forcing itself upon the Democratic mind. Hitherto the party has been boasting that any State governments which might be established on the principles of equal suffrage under the reconstruction laws should be overturned. But the restoration of eight of the eleven revolted States under the rule of equal political rights and the impossibility of thrusting them out again without revolution is convincing the more sagacious politicians of the Democratic party that the cry of a white man's government must be abandoned. The New York World, the leading exponent of the creed and policy of its party, tells its brethren plainly that negro suffrage is beyond their reach and control and is a permanency. It says that it is too evident for argument that negro suffrage cannot be uprooted by the Federal Government even under Democratic control. And, further, the World argues that all hope of its being set aside by the States must be abandoned. "If," it remarks, "the new Southern Constitutions are even amended it can only be by an election in which all the negroes can vote. Even if we could elect a Democratic Senate within the next four years, which we cannot, we could neither revive the expunged State governments nor cause the Southern negroes to vote for their own disfranchisement. Why should the National platform say anything on the subject? Would an anti-negro suffrage resolution in the platform aid the Southern whites in getting control? Would the negroes be more likely to vote with them if asked to vote for their own disfranchisement?" Such is the force of these suggestions that the World declares that its party must pledge itself not to do any act to disturb the suffrage as it exists in those States. "Where are we drifting? Shall we never more hear anything about a 'white man's Government'?"

THE CHASE MOVEMENT.—The San Francisco Bulletin remarks that late details of Eastern news throw much light on the Democratic movement in favor of Chase, while they show that it has gained strength. The defeat of impeachment by Republican votes, the virtual accomplishment of reconstruction by Republican measures, the nomination of Grant and Colfax on a moderate and sensible platform, the return of harmony to the Republican ranks, are all circumstances which warn the Democracy that success for them in the approaching campaign is impossible except by a masterly change of base. The most sagacious leaders in the Atlantic States see that they can not win by continuing the old denunciation of principles that have become facts, and by nominating candidates identified with opposition to a patriotic and successful war. The New York Herald puts the whole thing in a nutshell when it says:

Such is the present position of affairs that the Democrats must have for their standard bearer a man indubitably known to have been in sympathy with the war and having the respect of the loyal men of the North, a man whose record will commend him to all those who desire to see the country governed under the Constitution and the civil laws—the point of relation between the whole mass of the Democrats and the Conservative Republicans—a man who by dividing the negro vote in the South and getting the whole of the white vote there, can carry several of the Southern States.

Says the Alta: A gentleman who has just arrived from Arizona brings news from Prescott to the 11th June, and brings the gratifying intelligence that Hon. R. C. McCormick, the present Governor of the Territory, has been elected to Congress by about 300 majority. There is no doubt about the fact of McCormick's election, which is generally conceded, and the only question now is as to the majority. The canvass was closely contested and the majority will not be large. Gov. McCormick has proved himself to be a useful, efficient and public-spirited executive officer. He is an original Republican and a gentleman of correct instincts; he will be a valuable re-enforcement to the Pacific Coast delegation in Congress.

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun, published in the city where poor Ashburn was foully murdered at midnight by a gang of "well-dressed gentlemen" wearing masks, utters this threat of assassination the day after receiving the news of the nomination of General Grant at Chicago: "We don't know who will be assassinated, we don't care who will be. The unhappy wretch who may be fallen upon will never wear the Presidential robes." The "Democratic" organ at Sacramento (Cal.) also remarks: "The Radical tyrants have their modern Cæsar, but the Democracy have their Brutus, and for a Republican it is but a slip from the White House to the Tarpeian rock." This is "Democracy."

The Polk County Sign also complains that the resolution in the Republican National Platform relating to the payment of the debt is equivocal, that it does not sufficiently specify whether the debt is to be paid in coin or greenbacks, etc. Just let the Signal wait for the Democratic platform. That document will not take a position in favor of either coin or greenbacks.

LOOKING AFTER HOSTILE INDIANS.—The San Francisco Times of the 25th says: Admiral Thatcher sailed with the United States Flagship Pensacola yesterday, as is said, for the purpose of conferring with the Commander of the Jamestown, now stationed in Esquimalt harbor, Vancouver Island, in regard to the hostile attitude assumed by the Indians in Alaska toward the new settlements recently started in that country by immigrants from the United States.

STATE ITEMS

C. N. Terry will act as Deputy County Clerk for Marion county.

Considerable danger to the growing crops from the late rains are reported in Southern Oregon.

The Record says the official returns in the office of the Secretary of the State give Smith 1 199 majority.

It is said that railroad subscriptions to the amount of $12 000 will be secured, at Waconda, Marion county.

The Jacksonville Sentinel notices births under the head of "Coms," marriages it styles "Fixed to Stay," and deaths it reports under the head of "Gone."

A wagon road is now completed from old Fort Yamhill by way of the Indian Agency, Salmon river and the Nestucca to the coast. The distance from Fort Yamhill is about thirty miles.

The Unionist says: Mr. M. P. Owens, the well known dealer in fruit and cider, has been making a tour through parts of Marion and Polk counties during the past week. He reports the fruit crop better than he had thought before he examined the orchards in the regions through which he passed. Apples will be plenty but plums and cherries are scarce, the late frosts having entirely destroyed them in many places.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO JULY 2

Congressional

CHICAGO, July 1.—In the Senate, after some unimportant business, Edmunds called up the joint resolution providing that no States represented in Congress be entitled to vote in the Presidential election, also not unless the State Government is organized and in operation in such State under the authority of Congress.

Trumbull regarded it of much importance that Congress take some action on the subject of the vote in the late rebel States. He was not united with the party against whom it is expected they would operate and they might claim that unfair ... had been done and another rebellion might be the result. He continued his argument at some length and moved to strike out the names of Arkansas and Florida, which States are now represented in Congress.

Davis rose to speak, but the morning hour expired and the order of the day was taken up, the Civil Appropriation bill.

The question was on Sherman's amendment to place the funding bill as a rider upon the appropriation bill. At the request of a number of Senators Sherman withdrew his rider and it will be taken up as a separate bill.

Several amendments were offered and adopted.

In the House the bill for the protection of officers and agents of the government and for the better defense of Treasury Agents against unlawful claims was passed.

Several bills of a private nature passed.

The House then went into the Committee of the Whole on the Alaska appropriation bill.

Washburn of Wisconsin spoke two hours in opposition to the bill.

Previous to going into the Committee of the Whole, Morehead from the Committee of Ways and Means reported a bill partially resisting the tariff.

It is understood the House will take the final vote on the Alaska appropriation bill on Thursday of next week.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Gen. Gillem is ordered to California to take the position vacated by Gen. McDowell.

The committee of Ways and Means have agreed to report a small tariff bill, probably to-morrow. It covers small manufacturers of iron to the value which principally depends on the labor employed upon them.

Grant's Western Tour.

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Gen. Grant passed through here to-day bound West. He was enthusiastically received at the depot.

The Democratic Convention

NEW YORK, July 1.—The delegates to the Convention are rapidly arriving. The New York delegation held a meeting at the St. Nicholas Hotel and informally resolved to support Gov. Seymour. Seymour's friends seem certain, however, that his name will not come before the Convention. He personally don't desire to be a candidate. The Kentucky delegation resolved to support Pendleton. Tammany Hall presents a fine appearance, being festooned with flags and otherwise decorated. The indications to-day seem to point to Chase or Hendricks.

Florida Restored to the Union—Military Government Withdrawn

TALLAHASSEE, July 1.—Gov. Reid to-day received the surrender of the State Government from Gen. Walker in compliance with Gen. Meade's order. The military government in the State ceases by virtue of the order dated yesterday. The commanders of the sub districts are directed to abstain from interference with the civil law under any pretext whatever.

Vermont Politics

BURLINGTON, July 1.—The Republican State Convention yesterday renominated all the present incumbents of State offices.

Louisiana Affairs

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—This morning before the hour of assembling the Legislature a section of artillery and a squadron of cavalry, prepared for service, occupied Lafayette square. No one was allowed to approach who could not give a good account for his presence there. Two members of Gen. Buchanan's staff were also present. Appearances indicated that trouble was expected. The Senate met at noon. The committee to whom Gen. Buchanan's order was referred yesterday reported they were of the opinion that the action of the presiding officer requiring the members to take the test oath should be fully sustained, but due respect to the General commanding the armies of the United States, induced the committee to recommend the discontinuance of the test oath hereafter, and that members be allowed to qualify in accordance with the constitution of the State. After discussion the report was adopted. Fifteen Democratic Senators then took the oath. The Committee of Election was discharged that a new one might be appointed in which the Democrats should be represented.

The House proceedings were of a similar nature, but showed more opposition to dispense with the test oaths. Only the names of those who had previously taken the test oath were called on assembling. Subsequently the roll was called of those elected who had not qualified but qualified under the Constitution. More will probably do so to-morrow.

The House was permanently organized by the election of Chas. E. Lowell as Speaker.

A joint resolution was adopted ratifying the 14th amendment by a vote of 57 ayes to 3 noes.

It was resolved by the House that those not disqualified by the 14th amendment or article 99 of the Constitution, be allowed to take seats.

It is authoritatively stated that the application for the presence of Military was made by two democratic Senators elect.

Michigan Politics.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The Michigan Republican Convention yesterday nominated H. P. Baldwin of Detroit for Governor and Morgan Bates for Lieut.-Governor.

The Reconstruction Committee has agreed to report a bill to divide Texas into three States in stead of two.

The shooting in the German Schutzenfest commenced yesterday morning. There were nearly sixty thousand people present.

In the corps Legislatif the debate on the Budget continued. M. Thiers expressed the fear of an outbreak of war in consequence of the national bankruptcy on account of the military preparations now going on.

LONDON, July 1.—A grand banquet was given to Cyrus W. Field this evening, as an acknowledgment of his eminent services in both hemispheres in building the Atlantic telegraph. The Duke of Argyle was the chairman and 300 distinguished gentlemen were present.

BREMEN, July 1.—The North German Steamship Co. is about to build two more steamers for the Bremen and Baltimore line.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Wm. C. Greybach, yesterday, committed suicide at the Adams House by hanging himself to a bed post with a piece of packing twine. Deceased was in destitute circumstances, and was driven to attempting the robbery of a fellow lodger on Tuesday night. He was detected in the attempt and begged off, but it appears he was unwilling to survive his disgrace.

REPAIRS

As a matter of appreciation of the worth of the services of the Portland Fire Department, as also on the score of economy, I respectfully suggest that the houses and apparatus in use by the Department be kept in thorough repair, and to this end I would recommend the following as immediately and much needed:

Willamette Engine Co.'s House.—Is now being thoroughly repaired and, when completed, will present a good substantial improvement. There are a few repairs that are needed not included in the contract, which, if done, would be the better for it.

Columbian Engine Co.'s House.—There is now a petition before your honorable body for repairs on this house referred to your Committee on Fire and Water. The east and rear walls need pointing up and painting. The west wall is now being repaired by instruction of your Committee. The front needs touching up and oiling, and the inside ceilings and walls need whitening.

Protection Engine Co.'s House.—This company needs a new house. I would recommend their claim in this respect to your early and favorable consideration.

Vigilance Hook & Ladder Co.'s House.—Needs painting inside and out, the plastered ceilings and walls need whitening, and the bell-tower is much in need of paint.

REMARKS, RECOMMENDATIONS, &c.

The City of Portland has reason to be proud of its Fire Department as an organization, a more energetic and prompt organization will rarely if ever be found in any city—and it affords me a great deal of pleasure to endorse the good conduct of its members during the past year.

I would recommend the appointment in each ward of a Fire Warden, whose duty it should be to see that the Fire Ordinance be duly observed—receiving for such service such compensation as you may deem sufficient therefor.

I would further recommend that the leading fire hose now in the use of this Department be thoroughly greased and oiled as least as often as may be deemed necessary for the preservation and fair working of said hose, and that the city pay for the same. By so doing I think they would last longer and be of no greater expense to the city than under the present system.

I would notice in this connection that there is now several hundred feet of hose in the department that is unfit for service, and would recommend that they be sold at public auction.

I would here state that there are a few cisterns on First street and one or two on Washington street, that needs cleaning and recommend that the same be done before the fall season.

During the year the hand of death has stricken from our roll the names of Albert H. White and William Middendorff of Willamette Engine Company No. 1—the department following the remains of each to their final resting places.

In conclusion, I would beg leave to express in this my report the thanks of the Department at large to the members of the Council for the uniform kindness and consideration received at their hands—and I deem it appropriate at the same time to tender my thanks to my assistants and the different companies for the prompt and efficient manner in which my instructions have been carried out. I also would express the hope that the same good feeling towards the Fire Department may be continued by Your Honorable Body.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. WEED,
Chief Engineer of Portland Fire Department.

CAUSE OF THE UNUSUAL RAINS.—A friend who is given to the habit of accounting for things [illegible] the following plausible theory concerning the unusual copious rains of this summer. He says that the eruption of Mauna Loa in the Sandwich Islands has by emptying vast masses of molten lava and ashes in the sea heated all the surrounding waters considerably above the ordinary temperature, thus causing unusual evaporation. The moisture held in suspension by the atmosphere is carried by the trade winds toward the land of the continent where the air currents are met by the prevailing north winds. These latter being much the cooler serve to condense the vapor charged currents from seaward and precipitate their moisture in the form of rain. It is not at all improbable that vast quantities of water may have been taken up in the heated air in the vicinity of the eruption and carried thousands of miles away by the eccentric currents created by the eruptive column, fire which is said to have reached from seven to ten miles in height. The sea itself must have become much higher in temperature than usual, and these heated waters may have been carried toward us by ocean currents. In this event, the evaporation would more certainly make itself felt by way of a rain fall on the adjoining coast. The theory is supported by the fact that all along the Pacific coast from Sitka to San Diego there has been a very unusual amount of rain since the beginning of May.

ALL FOR A HUNDRED DOLLARS.—An eastern newspaper publishes the following list of articles as required to make a complete outfit for a masculine man about to commit matrimony. It strikes us as an inventory as is an inventory:

One black suit—plain	$ 80 00
One pack of handkerchiefs	35
Two shirts—plain bosom	5 00
One night shirt—embroidered	4 00
Two paper collars
One pair drawers—plain	1 75
One pair night drawers—ruffled	2 00
One bottle whisky	4 00
One paper of cloves	15
One cake honey soap
One comb—horn
One bottle cocktail bitters	1 50
One ivory toothpick	20
One Baxter's Saint's Rest	2 00
Total	$100 00

If that does not comprise a large amount of happiness for $100, we'd like to know how happiness is ever to be bought with greenbacks.

BUYING ALL THE SURROUNDING FARMS.—Our Seward, in his old age, seems to have broken out in a mania for buying all the farms surrounding Uncle Sam's premises. First, he bought Alaska with all its appurtenances of sea [illegible] icebergs and frozen etceteras. Now he has gone and bargained for Greenland and [illegible]. We submit that our William is the coldest blooded negotiator living. We are struck all over with a shiver at the bare thought of the arctic neighbors he is taking into the old house. Who knows but what the great Purchaser may go next and buy the floating mountains of ice about the north pole, and take them right into the bosom of the family? The future possibilities are appalling. Seward as a politician clearly has sunk low, but he is a versatile cuss, and of late years is constantly bursting upon the country with new and unexpected enterprises. We shall not be surprised to hear at any time now that he has procured a warranty deed, for the consideration of so many millions of U. S. notes to the "Shores of Time, or to Kingdom Come."

ROTTEN WHARVES.—Nearly all the older wharves of this city are so rotten as to be quite unsafe for heavily loaded teams. In many places they are broken through, so as to make it a matter of some difficulty to navigate their devious ways. Yesterday the wheel of a loaded truck broke through the wharf at the foot of Washington street and was raised out of the hole only after a good deal of lifting and pulling. This wharf is no more [illegible] than many of the older ones and considering the dangers of all of them it strikes us that some measures should be taken by the owners or by the city to have them repaired.

CLACKAMAS VS WASHINGTONS.—We learn that the Clackamas Club of Oregon City will go to Vancouver on the morning of the 4th to play the second game in the pending match with the Washington Club. The Oregon City Band will accompany the club and we hear that [illegible] of the people of Oregon City will join the excursion, instead of attending the celebration here. The [illegible] Alert will call here at about half past nine o'clock [illegible] such passengers as may wish to witness the [illegible]. After the conclusion of the game all will return [illegible] see the fireworks here, in the evening.

[illegible] COURT UPTON, JUDGE.—The following were [illegible] in the Circuit Court yesterday:

[illegible] Hoyer was admitted a citizen of the United [illegible]

[illegible] Columbians Keleo & R. H. Law [illegible] of action settled; dismissed at cost of [illegible] Stevens for plaintiff.

[illegible] Miles, et al; tes[illegible] concluded and case argued and submitted.

[illegible]—Among the passengers by the steamer [illegible] are several Oregonians who have been some time [illegible] either in California or the Eastern States. Mr. Lloyd Brooke has been in the States nearly a year; Mr. [illegible] has been two or three months in California; [illegible] went down to the bay some time since, ostensibly for a stock of liquors, but brings back a young wife. Several other of the passengers are old citizens of Portland and neighboring towns.

[illegible] J. C. Holbert & Co., of the new [illegible] manufactory on Front street, seem to be live men. They have already got their establishment in good working order, and with a [illegible] for manufacturing which [illegible] to come near supply all the demands of the [illegible]. They are making excellent [illegible], too, and putting them up in good merchantable shape. See their advertisement under the head of "new to-day."

[illegible] HOUSE.—Messrs. Cushing & Todd, late proprietors of the "White House," opposite Milwaukie, [illegible] a dissolution of partnership, Mr. Todd retiring [illegible]. Hereafter, the place will be conducted by Cushing & Hughes. The last [illegible] is a [illegible] an employee in this office, and a first rate [illegible]. We hope that all the breezes of success [illegible] in the sails of the new firm.

[illegible].—All the [illegible] felt concerning the [illegible] of the Pacific was out, was ground[illegible]. [illegible] had a trip that was as pleasant as the average, with moderate head winds, and the Columbia bar, when [illegible] it, was smooth enough. The ship had been [illegible] some time and her bottom had accumulated sea [illegible] and barnacles to such an extent that [illegible] was on [illegible]. That's what's the matter.

[illegible] "Horribles."—We are requested by the Grand Marshal of the above named ancient order to say that a meeting will be held at the Council Chamber to night, to fully complete arrangements for the grand dress parade on Saturday. This is positively the last call, and all who intend to trot out on this occasion must be at the Council Chamber this evening at half past seven.

EXTRA TRIP.—Mr. Troup engineer of the Fannie Troup, informs us that that steamer will make her usual trip from Vancouver to this city on the morning of the 4th and in the afternoon will make an extra trip, leaving [illegible] at 6 o'clock P. M., in order to enable the people who [illegible] at home during the day, to witness our display of fireworks in the evening.

[illegible].—We are informed that a club of boat men of this city stand ready to build a race boat of six or eight oars to run against any boat of the same di[illegible] that anybody may dare to build and pit against [illegible], and they desire it to be understood that they challenge Oregon City and Vancouver, or any other man, to [illegible]. Who takes the banter?

THE RACES TO DAY.—The heavy rains of the last two [illegible] days, have made the track at the Union Course heavy; but should no more rain fall, the races ad[illegible] will take place this afternoon. There are now [illegible] for the purses of entrance and gate money. We have already published the names of six, and the other we have not learned.

THE BALL AT ORO FINO.—We understand that every thing has been nicely arranged for the party at Oro Fino Hall to-night, and that a large company is expected. The reputation of Messrs. Cardinell and McCann, as managers, is sufficient guarantee that everything will proceed as it should and that the guests can scarcely fail to [illegible] a happy time.

[illegible] MACHINERY.—We notice on the docks quite a [illegible] of cases of woolen machinery, directed, we be[illegible] to the mills at Salem. The Willamette Woolen [illegible] Co. have been of late, making extensive expenditures to enlarge their business and perfect some of the [illegible] of manufacture.

[illegible] DONATION.—This office acknowledges the re[illegible] from Mason & Co of a keg of their "4th of July [illegible]" which came in yesterday just when our boys were [illegible] the right mood to drink heartily to the generous [illegible]. Everybody hurrahed for Mason & Co., and [illegible] Mason & Co.'s ale.

[illegible].—The jury in the case of L. O. Lander vs. S. [illegible] et al, came in last evening with a verdict for the [illegible] damages at $4,800. The suit was brought against defendant for shooting the plaintiff during an attempted arrest, causing him the loss of a leg, by [illegible] amputation.

[illegible] FOR LITTLE GIRLS.—Mr. Harrington, [illegible] of the Committee on Liberty Car and Decorations, [illegible] us to say that the little girls who are to represent the States are requested to meet at Oro Fino Hall [illegible], in readiness to enter the car.

[illegible] HOP.—There will be a social hop at the engine [illegible] of Columbian Engine Company, No. 3, this evening [illegible] celebration of the National Anniversary. Supper will be served at the engine house. There will doubtless be an unusually pleasant party.

A NEW COACH.—Mr. E. Corney the landlord of the New Columbian Hotel, arrived home by the steamer [illegible] bringing with him a new coach and a very handsome one, [illegible] to be run hereafter in the interest of the house. It [illegible] and makes.

MILITARY GOODS.—The vessels now in port are discharging [illegible] quantities of Ordnance, Commissary, Quartermaster and Medical Stores to be distributed [illegible] the various posts of this Department.

[illegible] FOR CELEBRATION.—The complete programme of exercises for the celebration, will appear to-morrow morning.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851

STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, regrets nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands [illegible] and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who try counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Low [illegible] Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

NASBY

NASBY NOMINATES AN ILLINOIS FATHER FOR THE PRESIDENCY

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS }
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky, }
June 1 1868 }

The matter uv a Presidenshal candidate hez op prest me, and hez also exercised the gigan ic n tellex who congregate at the Corners We hev decided that Cheef Justice Chase wont do. We kin support him cheerfully, for his method uv conductin the impeachment trial her satisfied us uv his hankerin for a standin in our party He sides this, havin made a start, we consider him safe anyhow. The man wich kin take a posish a shen at our hands, or identify hisself with us may allus be counted onto The Ablishnists never for give sich, and ther aint no other place to go When Johnson and Doolittle and that crowd left the Ablishnists, I knew wher they would land better than they did Facilis decensus averni wich bein translated into the vulgar tongue means, the road to hell is macadamized

Hancock won't do, becos our Southern brethren hev a prejoodis agin the flag he drawd his sword under. Pendleton wood answer the West, but the East is opposed to him I, therefore, after givin the matter mature considerashen, hev decided to propose for the posishen the name of Jethro L Kippins, uv Alexander county, Illinoy.

I hev the follerin reasons for insistin on his nominashen:

1 He's geographically level. By lookin on the map it will be seen that that county in Illinoy is the extreme southwesterly part uv the State It is a Northern county with Southern ideas Across the river is Kentucky, west is Southeastern Missoury, and east is lower Injeanny. They grow tobacco there and yearn after slave labor ez intensely ez we do across the river.

2. Nobody knows him. The name uv Jethro L. Kippins hez never filled the soundin trump uv fame. With him on our tikkit several pints wood be gained. On all questions on which there is a doubt in the [illegible] uv the Democracy Jethro L Kippins is uncommitted. He is unembarrassed with views, and on trublesome questions hez nary an opsyun The trubble Pendleton hez with the greenbax wood not afflict him, neither wood any uv them other questions which are rather embarrasin than otherwise He hez but one polittikle principle, which he holds is enuff for any one man, and that is Democrisy, ez it hez been, ez it is, and ez it may be He believes firmly in the curse uv Canaan, he holds close to Onesimus and Hagar, and hez sworn a solemn oath that no nigger shall ever marry a daughter uv hizzen. This noble sentiment, wich allus strikes a responsive cord in every Democratic buzzum, wood be emblazoned on the Kippins banner

3. Jethro L. Kippins is posted on the war [illegible] happy. He opposed all the steps wich led to it, and finally when it broke out he proposed the only true Demokratic way uv stoppin it. It wuz his opinyun that we hed no rite to coerce the South—that there wuz no warrant in the Constooshen for any sich proceedin. "Ef Beauregard fires onto Major Anderson," sed he, "let Major An[illegible] go afore the nearest Justice uv the Peace, and hev him bound over to keep the Peace. Ef he [illegible] keep the peace, and the Justis [illegible] why that ends it. We [illegible] the Constooshen." After hostilities [illegible] his posishen wuz [illegible] He wuz in favor uv [illegible] He remained [illegible] committed to neither, but were he in Congris he shoodent vote for nary man nor dollar for carryin on a war agin em His two sons served in the war—one in the Confedrit army and one in the Federal—both ez sutlers. The war bore heavy on him—he made great sacrifices Three other sons he supported in Canada doorin the continyooance uv the unnatchral strife

4. Jethro L. Kippins hez all the elements uv [illegible] He wuz born in a log cabin—he stud ied Daboll's arithmetic by the lite of a pine knot, held for the purpose by his mother—he drove hogs on [illegible] was a salt boiler in Southern Ohio, a [illegible] boy on the Nashville road, was left an orfan when six [illegible] old, swept a store in his early youth, went down the Mississippi on a flat boat was in the Mexican war, and hez a consumin pa[illegible] for ho[illegible]. He hez in this the advantage uv Grant, ez his passion wuz ez consumin that it [illegible] A literary difficulty, which required twelve men, a Judge and two lawyers to settle, one of the lawyers bein the States Attorney uv the county. Its e-facts in his biography I got from his own lips. Ef there's any discrepencies, [illegible] the Committee on Biography will reconcile them. It may be that he may have done too much—wich is to say, ef all he says is troo, he wood be 200 or 300 years old. Ef so, it will hev to be pared down. He hez ben Justis uv the Peace [illegible] in his native township, which gives him a [illegible] knowledge of constooshenel law

5. He is [illegible] nashnel in his views. He knows no north, no south, no east, no west, no nothin The [illegible] mite prejudice some agin him, but [illegible] his chief holt For while such a man in the Pr[illegible] I wood be safe We hev [illegible] such men ez Wood, Seymour [illegible] who manage a Pr[illegible] who are too odorous to be elected [illegible] parishan themselves. There [illegible] ry that precisely sich a man as I [illegible] and the fact that Chase [illegible] hen I hev to him. Polk was [illegible] Pierce eminently so, and poor old Buchanan was wonderfully pliable.

[illegible] wich I prize. There are [illegible] Our people wood to [illegible] "Who's thunder is Kippins?" and before they cood find out the day of elecshun would be on em, and they'd vote him, His bein [illegible] is also in his favor. Wat wood Pendleton, Vallandygum, Seymour and Wood give ef they hed no record? A record is like a tin kettle tied to a dog's tale—it's a noisy apendage wich makes the dog conspicuous, and invites every body to shy a brick at it.

I havent menshuned in this, nor shel I, who wood be [illegible] man for the sekund place the tickit. I hev my opinion Kentucky is de[illegible] —that's all I shel say. The [illegible] characteristic uv me prevents me from sugestin a particklar citizen uv Kentucky who [illegible] thus honored We shel see whether or not republics is ongrateful

PETROLEUM V NASBY, P M
(Wich is Postmaster)

P. S. The fact that Jethro L Kippins holds my note for $15 68, with interest for two years, hez no influence in my sejestin his name I am influenced by no mercenary considerashuns

Chase and Pendleton.

The New York correspondent of the Sacramento Union under date of June 9th writes

The Chase movement is apparently carrying all before it I say apparently for a suspicion is beginning to pervade the minds of the old friends of the Chief Justice that the Democrats are only using his name to kill off Pendleton and that in reality a new man or some one not prominently named at this time, as Hendricks, for example will be brought forward at the proper time The Pendleton delegations who appear to have made the Metropolitan Hotel their headquarters are very strong, active and determined. It is confidently asserted that Johnson will throw the power of the Administration, or such of it as remains in his hands, in favor of Chase A very significant sign of the popularity of the movement in certain quarters is the unanimous adoption of strong Chase resolutions by the Constitutional Union General Committee the other evening The Albany Argus shows a decided leaning in the same direction. The Brooklyn Eagle, always a staunch Democratic journal, is out in favor of Chase and even the Sunday Mercury, the rankest of Copper head sheets, shies the castor into the same ring It does not appear to be doubted that if nominated on a reasonably tolerant platform Chase will accept the nomination A meeting of some six or seven hundred citizens of Irish nationality was held on the 5th inst at which Chase was recommended as the candidate for President and General Hancock for Vice President Arrangements were made to form organizations in all the city wards. The World this morning endeavors to show that Chase and Pendleton are not so far apart in their views upon financial and some other questions (it does not touch the negro suffrage doctrine) as they appear at a superficial glance It is evidently feeling the way for the Chief Justice.

Who Started the Anti Slavery Movement in America

(From the New York Times)

The recent presentation of a testimonial to Wm. Lloyd Garrison, and the correspondence connected therewith, would seem to imply that Mr. Garrison is the party to whom the honor is due of having been the first to unfurl the anti slavery flag in the United States Without detracting from the credit due to Mr Garrison for his early and persistent advocacy of the cause of the enslaved, yet historical accuracy will be maintained, and no credit of having commenced the controversy against negro slavery in America be given to the right party, by giving publicity to the following letter from Mr Garrison, in which he himself does justice to the original pioneer of freedom in the following eloquent panegyric to the memory of the fearless champion of the oppressed, who in [illegible] commenced and for forty years continued to advocate the cause of anti slavery in the United States viz, Rev George Bourne

BOSTON, Nov 18, 1855

MY DEAR FRIEND It gave me the greatest gratification to receive and read your letter of the 8th inst. It seemed next to receiving an epistle from your venerated father, whose memory will ever be dear to me, and whose labors sacrifices and perils in the cause of the millions in our land who are "appointed to destruction" ought to be biographically chronicled and perpetuated.

I confess my early and large indebtedness to him for enabling me to apprehend with irresistible clearness the inherent sinfulness of slavery under all circumstances, and the utter incompatibility with the spirit and precepts of Christianity

I felt and was inspired by the magnetism of his lion hearted soul, which knew nothing of fear, and trampled upon all compromises with oppression, yet was full of womanly gentleness and susceptibility, and mightily did he aid the anti slavery cause in its earliest stages by his advocacy of the doctrine of immediate and unconditional emancipation, his exposure of the hypocrisy of colonization schemes and his reprobation of a negro hating slaveholding religion He was both "a son of thunder" and "a son of consolation" Never has slavery had a more indomitable foe or freedom a truer friend

You inquire whether your father was not the author of the work entitled "Slavery Illustrated in its effects upon Women," published in this city in 1837 by Isaac Knapp He was, as every line of it bears witness I wish it could be republished, and a million copies of it distributed broadcast * * * * I thank you for sending me a copy of the constitution of the African Civilization Society, and the pamphlet by Benjamin Coates, which I have hereby noticed in the Liberator of this week I am not prepared to state my views of this new movement at length, but I heartily wish prosperity to every benevolent effort to increase the growth of free cotton whether in Africa, India or elsewhere, and thus to strike a heavy blow at slavery pecuniarily I am in hopes, however, that we are nearer the jubilee than such a movement would seem to imply

Still let every just instrumentality be used for the eternal overthrow of slavery Yours to break every yoke. WM. LLOYD GARRISON

Mr THEODORE BOURNE

BOOTH THE ASSASSIN —Mr Richard H Garret, of Carolina county, Virginia on whose place the assassin Booth was killed has published an account of the arrival and capture of the fugitive On the 24th of April, at 4 o clock P M, three strangers on horseback rode up to his house and announced themselves to be rebel soldiers Booth was introduced as Mr. Boyd of A P Hill s corps, badly wounded a few days before the surrender. Permission was asked to let Boyd remain there until the two could scout the road toward Richmond The owner of the house consented, and Booth s companions galloped off Booth slept in the house that night with two lads. At dinner next day one of the family mentioned that $150,000 had been offered for the arrest of Booth What happened then, Mr. Garret relates as follows: "Boyd looked up and said he should not be surprised if a reward of $50,000 had been offered; that he had heard a day or so before that the murderer had been arrested between Baltimore and Philadelphia I asked him if he had ever seen Booth, the reputed murderer, and if he was an elderly man? He said he had seen him once in Richmond, about the time of the John Brown raid, and thought that he was rather a young man I thought at the time the murderer was Mr Edwin Booth, having never heard of any other Booth as an actor. I was not much with the man during the day, as I was attending to my laborers, he seemed to be restless, and my family informed me that he spent the greater part of the day reclining on the grass in the front yard" After dining, a horseman (Harrold) arrived and had a long talk with Booth Subsequently two others came in but haste to report the approach of Yankee cavalry The three made arrangements to leave the next day, but Mr. Garret's family, by this time had become vaguely alarmed for their own safety, and insisted that Boyd should sleep in the tobacco house At 2 A. M. the United States cavalry arrived, and what followed needs no repetition.

In a letter hitherto unpublished, dated Aug, 1857 the late Lord Brougham explained to a curious correspondent his now famous saying "The schoolmaster is abroad." His Lordship wrote. "The expression to which Mr —— refers, of the school master being abroad, was first used by Lord B in the debate Jan. 29, 1828, in the House of Commons What he meant was that the schoolmaster was in the field to instruct the people, and that they had no occasion to fear oppression from other quarters. It had been a common saying before that the soldier was abroad and would have his own way in the world"

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine but excel it in every particular

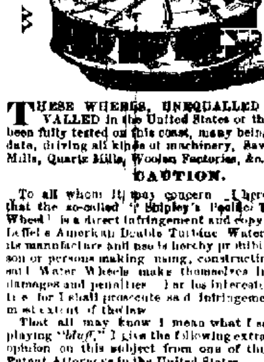

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern —One A Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law His statements are not worth a denial His game is "Bluff" which, if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out Don't believe him

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel, and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties For his interested will take notice for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law

That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing "Bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States

WASHINGTON, D C, April 17, 1868

"MR A MYERS— In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel patents. In both of Shipley s Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the charge of infringement at all He has no right to use those two tier of buckets whether alone or with a third or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it be the maker user buyer or seller Every infringement, whether or claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted
